The Kentucky Suicide Prevention Group, Inc. is a statewide grassroots organization dedicated to supporting suicide prevention, intervention, and postvention services throughout the Commonwealth. It educates policymakers, communities, organizations, family members, survivors and individuals about best practices in each of these important areas and assists in the development of vehicles to achieve more equipped systems of care and competent practitioners. The KSPG supports and partners with crisis intervention services, mental health providers and other community based institutions working to reduce suicide death in Kentucky and improve the after care of those who are affected by suicide.

KSPG brings together on a statewide level those who are deeply committed to increasing help-seeking among individuals and families before, during, or after a suicide. Members receive a quarterly electronic newsletter on suicide prevention, intervention and postvention activities throughout Kentucky and the United States. Members are notified of upcoming events in Kentucky, annual statistical updates, fact sheets, and are also offered the following benefits:

- Recognition on KSPG web site
- Training and consultation services
- Inventory of services and support groups for bereaved
- Materials
- Free ad in Fall newsletter
- Policy updates
- Expertise and counseling referrals
- Inclusion in list serve
- Inclusion in webinars

Members also receive access to the "members-only" section of the KSPG website, where they are able to freely network with other members, connect with colleagues, contribute to our message boards, and peruse the other resources exclusively available to them as values members of the KSPG community.
